

Announcement

Scholarships to attend IFHE Jubilee Congress July 26-31, 2008 Lucerne, Switzerland

The Non-Governmental Organization, International Home Economics Services (IHES), is pleased to announce an opportunity to support developing country professionals to attend the IFHE Jubilee Congress in 2008. Travel scholarships in the amount of registration fees or registration fees and housing (double occupancy) at the week-long event will be available to 10 recipients (maximum $1000.USD per scholarship). Applications are being accepted until March 1, 2008. An application is required (form attached).

IHES was organized in 1974 and registered in the United States; a vision of Helen Strow and her colleagues as a way to strengthen Home Economics related programming in underdeveloped settings. Individual donations and volunteer contributions are allocated to projects in greatest need internationally. The current Board of Directors has allocated a considerable amount of money to support this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to celebrate 100 years of service with like-minded home economics professionals. These travel scholarships are intended to assist professionals from the developing countries of the world who would not otherwise be able to attend. A scholarship is viewed as a professional development opportunity and should be used to strengthen home economics programming, not for personal gain.

Please help to share this information with potential applicants. Applicants do not need to be individual members of IFHE but must be affiliated with an associated home economics related organization or institution. For questions or further information, inquiries can be directed to Dr. Mary Andrews (mandrews@msu.edu), Dr. Alberta Hill (hilla@wsu.edu), or Juanita Mendenhall (juanitam@usit.net). For more information about IHES or ways to contribute to the work of the organization, contact President, Ruth Norman (redla57@aol.com).

Please circulate this announcement.
