

IFHE Council Meeting 1994

Resolution

The Importance of Families and Households within Society

BE IT RESOLVED: that the International Federation for Home Economics promote and support actions undertaken by Home Economics, which promote the well-being of families and households through the pursuit of:

- a.) The adoption of policies enabling households and families to cope with everyday life, thus providing better welfare for society,
- b.) The provision of basic education in family matters for all young people, boys and girls, in order that they may develop a responsible attitude towards the provision care and upbringing of children,
- c.) The provision of a clearer orientation for politicians and responsible persons in business and public services towards families and households.
