The IFHE-US Development Fund purposes are to
- Collect, manage & disburse resources in the form of small grants to professionals in developing countries (World Bank definition)
- Advance the objectives and visibility of IFHE internationally
- Promote Home Economics related educational & development programs for the purpose of improving the quality of life of individuals, families & communities and strengthen the profession’s ability to advocate in behalf of families

Project Proposals should:
- Address an important need among a target audience that at the same time, extends or strengthens the capacity of home economists or home economics organizations
- May be extensions of existing programs or pilot efforts to reach new audiences or address new issues
- Target population must be from a developing country

Funding may be requested to:
- Conduct an evaluation of existing program that could be expanded or bring visibility to Home Economics.
- Match funding with other organizations to accomplish a major intervention
- Extend or build the capacity of an IFHE organization to meet their goals
- Gain visibility for the work of Home Economists in addressing UN issues & themes

Proposals should be submitted electronically to:
