

IFHE Scholarship 2024

IFHE
INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
FOR HOME ECONOMICS

Theme: Strengthening Organizational Identity of the Federation and Promoting Solidarity of IFHE Members with the Federation

The IFHE scholarship recognizes students for achievements in promoting the profession and putting its interdisciplinary values into practice. It aims to identify and financially support Home Economics students to advance the profession on an international level through work on an international project. The scholarship includes a two-year membership to IFHE and reimbursement of travel costs to international IFHE meetings and related events up to 3.000 EUR.

Selection criteria

Applicants must be able to attend the XXV World Congress in Galway/ Ireland from 23 – 28 June 2024.

Students are selected for their ability to put the spirit of the scholarship into practice in their own communities (upon graduation). The completion of a Bachelor- or Master Thesis or a research publication during the scholarship period is appreciated.

Other specific selection criteria include:

- Academic excellence
- Visible contribution to promoting Home Economics and its interdisciplinary values
- Fluency in both written and spoken English (applicants whose country's official language is not English should provide evidence of English language proficiency)
- Technical means to attend online meetings & ability to travel internationally (including access to the internet and ability to meet visa requirements)

How to apply

We welcome applications to executivedirector@ifhe.org until 29 February 2024. Applications should include

- letter of motivation, your CV and certificates
- proof of enrollment as student and English language proficiency
- a draft concept of how they would advance the 2024 scholarship theme during the scholarship period, covering online activities and travel. The draft concept should be concise, its form is up to you. Surprise us.

We are looking forward to receiving your applications.
